American Auto Guardian, Inc. (“AAGI”) Holds First F & I Manager’s Sales Contest

Arlington Heights, IL - American Auto Guardian, Inc. (“AAGI”), announced its plan to hold an F & I manager’s sales contest, with such prizes as trips to Las Vegas and various cash awards. The contest runs April 1 through August 31, 2009. F & I manager’s must enroll in the contest through their agent and then meet certain sales objectives to determine their winning prize level.

The contest is being held in conjunction with AAGI’s 4th annual agent contest. Previous agent contests have included prize destinations of Key West, St. Thomas and Playa del Carmen. During the trip agents enjoy activities hosted by AAGI, but also take pleasure in free time.

AAGI recently launched their 2009 versions of both VSC programs, AutoGuard[®] and Wheelz[®], which are the key elements to both contests. For complete information on any of the programs offered by AAGI, or to enroll in the 2009 sales contest, please call 888.442.2886.
