Nicholas Angelides Joins American Auto Guardian, Inc. (“AAGI”)

Schaumburg, IL—American Auto Guardian, Inc. (“AAGI”) is pleased to announce that Nicholas Angelides has joined its sales team as Central Regional Vice President.

Nick received his bachelor’s degree in Business Administration, Economics from Florida Atlantic University. During college and after graduation, Nick worked at Nation Safe Driver, as an independent account executive, where he initiated and maintained relationships with agents and dealers.

Prior to joining AAGI, Nick was an owner/operator of his own tire inflation maintenance company. Nick developed the product, sourced manufacturers and supplies and then created marketing materials. He coordinated a marketing campaign and developed a distribution network. Nick managed all the day-to-day operations of that company. Nick will be responsible for developing and managing the central region of the United States for AAGI.
